THANKSGIVING BANQUET

Watstka Tribe 224, I. O. R. M., Enjoy Sumptuous Spread at Their Wigwam.

With solemn incantations to a slow dirge the Watstka Tribe No. 224, of the Improved Order of Red Men, danced around their sacred camp fire last Thursday night, Nov. 28. The camp is located in the Old Fellow's hall over the old stand of Walker & Athine.

The occasion was a feast for painted braves, their wives and sweethearts. Among the number there appeared pale faces to whom the mystic rites and ceremonies were very interesting. Their quiet demeanor and exemplary behavior was evidence to all that the feathered Red Men told full sway, especially around their own camp fire. The chief Sachem, whose white name is J. C. Wallace presided over the ceremonies with great dignity. His speech to his warriors was listened to with marked attention interrupted now and then by a grunt of approval.

His conduct of the entire ceremonies was executed with a quiet pose which called to his hearers minds "The Last of the Mohicans."

The feast spread for all was magnificent and consisted in part of buffalo, deer, wild turkey and other delicacies. Those high in the council of braves very properly tabooed firewater and therefore no pale faces lost their lives.

Rev. R. U. Love in a very solemn and impressive manner invoked the blessing of the Great Spirit upon the occasion.

After the feast other braves made speeches and in the glare of the camp fire their hearers sat in solemn silence while aboriginal eloquence poured from the lips of hardened warriors. The most notable was high chief medicine man, A. D. Driskill, who held all his hearers spell bound. Standing in the fire-light painted and befeathered, his long arm pointing a direct emphasis, he outlined the grievances of his tribe and ended down dire destruction on the heads of all enemies of the Watstkas.

Prophet C. E. Weldon painted in glowing colors the beauties of and the advantages offered by the Improved Order of Red Men. A few pale faces attempted to make speeches but it was very evident that the weird surroundings produced upon them a very depressing effect. They all sat down quickly. The affair was very enjoyable and pronounced a grand success by all who attended.

Among brave Indians and visitors who attended we note the following on the register:

J. C. Wallace, Walter McConnell, Mrs. Lillie McConnell, Miss Olive McConnell, Claude Guess, Mr. and Mrs. James Tolley, Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Lawson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred

Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. E. Wilhorn, Alma Conyer, Izetta Conyer, Minnie Ross, Stella Ross, John H. Scott, Bev, and Mrs. R. U. Love, Mrs. A. J. Driskill, Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Nunn, Mrs. C. E. Weldon, Mrs. d. E. Glass, Mrs. S. H. Rainage, Mrs. Annette King Jackson, Miss Bernice Driskill, Miss Eliza Lawson, Emmett Koltinsky, Mrs. Leona Koltinsky, C. R. Huyall, C. V. Franks, Hattie Shuttleworth, Iva Hieklum, Miss Maude Driskill, Winifred Steamaker, Ivan Brown, Myrtle Glass, John B. Seberry, Arnold Driskill, Mrs. J. C. Wallace, J. W. Ross, Wathen Rankin, Grace Yandell, C. E. Weldon, T. M. Conyer, d. E. Glass, Walter Guess, S. E. Ross, Harvey Hill, R. L. Bibb, Mrs. Mariah Brown, Geo. M. Crider, A. J. Driskill, John Bell, S. H. ## New Manager For Opera House.

Marion, Ky., is at last blessed with an Opera House manager, one that is a hustler. Mr. Chas. Holton, from Memphis, Tenn., is the gentleman and this is his object. To furnish the best talent to elevate and refine, to show the depth and breadth of mind and to create a normal desire for wholesome amusement. No attraction is too good for Marion. I have not asked, as is often the case, that the merchants and business men aid with a subsidy or guarantee. I shall bring my people here on their merits. I feel confident that they will obtain the appreciation of the theatre going lovers of Marion and that consequently the production will prove a great financial success.

The manager of the Marion Opera House will provide not only the best and most beautiful that money can buy, designed with special reference to the comfort and enjoyment of Marion audience, but I will furnish the best and most expensive attractions to be found in the amusement centers of the world.

All that is possible in catering for companies of the highest class will be done. Expense has never been considered when any desirable attraction was in view and thus for thirty-five years under my management I have dealt in a fair and liberal manner with the people of this country. I have kept faith by pushing forward from the day of small things to a higher plane and keeping in the van of that movement which has forced a universal recognition of drama as a recreative entertainment for ladies and gentlemen.

I simply ask the aid of all interested in this. I shall ask them to give the Opera House a fair test and feeling assured that I will be highly pleased. I shall ask them to spread the fame of the production among their friends far and near. The success which I hope to obtain in Marion will be of importance, not only to myself and to the organization, but even of more importance to the people of Marion. Respy.

CITAS, HOLTON,
Manager Marion Opera House.

J. C. FOSTER DEAD

Stricken With Paralysis While Out on His Farm.

Geo. H. Foster of this city received news Tuesday of last week of the death of his uncle J. C. Foster, of Joy, Livingston county. He was sick only a few days, having been stricken with paralysis. He was 74 years of age August 12th, last.

Mr. Foster was a member of the Presbyterian church, and had been a Christian since he was 16 years of age. He is survived by his wife and four children: Oliver Foster, of Carrollton, Mrs. Martha Glenn of Caldwell county, Mrs. Chas. Butter, of Paducah, and Mrs. Dr. Goodloe of Smithland.

Of him the Livingston Echo says—Last Friday while out on his farm near Joy, Mr. Cal Foster was struck with paralysis which affected the lower limbs. For several days he had been feeling bad. His condition has been and is still serious. He is not expected to recover.

Mr. Foster is an old man, one of the best known men of the county, a farmer. His many friends are extremely uneasy about his condition.

A later report is, that Mr. Foster is dead. He died Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. He will be buried today at the Duley Bluff grave yard.

There was at no time since the attack much hope of his recovery. The seriousness of his condition was at once realized and his children and near relatives were at once called to his bed side and remained till his death.

Mrs. Julia P. Moore Dies.

Our friend, R. B. Dorr, of Los Angeles, Cal., writes us as follows: Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 25, 1907.

Dear Marshall—Mrs. Julia P. Moore, widow of the late Rev. W. T. Moore, died this morning at 3 o'clock of pneumonia at the Beaconess Home this city.

Your friend,
R. B. Dorr

The Mrs. Moore referred to is the widow of the late much beloved Rev. Tom Moore, of this county. He being a brother of Elvis Moore, of this city. Mrs. Moore was the step-grandmother of Mrs. Walter Travis and Wilma Boston, both of this city.

Mining Capitalist Here.

B. N. Austin, General Passenger Agent of the B. & O. R. R., and his private secretary, Mr. Hager, and son Leslie Austin, of the Gold field and Tonopah R. R., of Nevada and R. C. Haase of St. Paul, Minnesota, composed a party of capitalists who were here the guests of Capt. T. H. B. Haase last week.

They came first to Mexico by private car and after making a survey of the "Blue Grass Fluor Spar Co." properties they came to Marion and spent the day and night here. They left Saturday night for Chicago, but before their departure expressed themselves as highly pleased with prospects in this field and with their investments. The purpose of their visit was to make a casual survey of the Lime Mineral Belt R. R., which will connect with the I. C., somewhere near Mexico.

W. B. Yates, at Joplin.

Evangelist W. B. Yates, of Kentucky, made his first appearance in revival work here Sunday morning at the M. E. Church South. At both morning and evening services the house was crowded. Mr. Yates is a specialist in choral work and charms every one when heard in solo. His voice is one of power and inspiration and while the music is simple, charms, holds and wins the listener. In the afternoon he held a special young peoples meeting. He talked on the subject of "paying the price." It was well attended and proved an inspiration to the night service. Rev. Burton preached last night on "Ye must be born again." The meetings continue each night this week and next. Rev. O'Rear of Carterville will fill the pulpit this week.—Joplin, Mo., Times.

Bigham Reunion.

A happy reunion was that held at the home of W. H. Bigham in the Chapel Hill section Thanksgiving day, where all of his children and grand children called to cheer the family fireside from whence they have all scattered except one daughter, Miss Ruby, who keeps house for her father.

Besides the father and daughter, those who partook of their hospitality were the following: E. H. Bigham, wife and children, Dellie, Novel, Lester, Effie, Estella and Ruth Bigham; J. T. Bigham, wife and children, Marvin, Iva and Vida; J. N. Hill, wife and children, Fannie and Ovid Hill; H. H. Ward, wife and children, Iris, Baby Ward, and Ruby Bigham.

A fine dinner was spread and a grand and good time was had by all present who hope for many returns of the day.

Blaze At Repton.

Last Tuesday morning about three thirty o'clock, Mr. S. D. Asher's, of Repton, store and dwelling adjoining were burned to the ground.

The fire originated in the store and was supposed to have been set on fire by sparks from a passing freight train.

He had just received a new lot of goods and altogether, he had about $2800 worth of goods, in the general merchandise line. There was only $1500 insurance on the goods, none on the building.

The dwelling was valued at $1400 with $600 insurance and $200 on the household goods.

All the stock of merchandise and about one-half the household contents were destroyed.

Mr. Asher was also postmaster and lost all his post office supplies, books, etc. and saved only a few stamps which happened to be in the safe, that being the only article taken from the store.

The small freight depot belonging to the I. C. Railroad Co., was burned but everything was removed from it before it caught.

Harmony Club Concert.

The concert given at the school Auditorium Tuesday evening by the Harmony Club was one of the best that has ever been given in this city. This was the second visit of the Harmony girls and every one looked forward to the entertainment.

The program was well rendered. Miss Maude Kirksmith's selections on the violin were fine. Miss Gertrude Kirksmith possesses a voice clear and sweet and with much volume. Miss Lillian Kirksmith certainly knows how to play the flute and her selections were very sweet. Miss Clara Blakeslee is a pianist with much ability. Each member of the company was fine, but the whole company in their quartette was finer.

The people of Marion should feel that they are very fortunate to be able to secure such attractions as the Harmony Concert Company.

A Worthy Institution.

The Bowling Green University is worthy of the confidence and support of the public. It has trained hundreds of young people who are now holding responsible and lucrative positions with credit to themselves and satisfactory to their employers.

Need 300 Teachers.

Three hundred teachers will be needed in the Philippines early next year in order to maintain the quota of 1,000 from the United States. Special examinations for these positions will be held by the United States Civil Service Commission in the holiday vacation.

Henry Delaney and Abbie Oliver were sweethearts here fifteen years ago. It is claimed that Delaney accomplished the ruin of the girl and that her parents forced the marriage, the father threatening Delaney with dire vengeance if he did not marry the girl.

Delaney and the girl drove from here to Morganfield, the county seat of Union county and the ceremony was performed there.

In an announcement prepared to be given out at the War Department, it is stated: "This examination will be open to the wives, fiancees, or other women who are near relatives of those already in the service or candidates for position as teachers. The age limits are twenty and forty years. The bulk of the appointments will be made at the entrance salary of $1,200."

In his address at the opening of the Philippine Assembly, Secretary Taft said that one of the greatest obstacles to the development of the Philippines was the lack of a common language. In noting the improvement as the result of the school system, he said:

"It is not an exaggeration to assert that now more native Filipinos speak English than Spanish, although Spanish was the language of the ruling race in these islands for more than 250 years. The strongest basis for our confidence in the future of the Filipino people is the eagerness with which the opportunities extended for education in English have been seized by the poor and ignorant parents of these islands for their children. It is alike pathetic and encouraging."—Washington Cor. N. Y. Times.

Public Meeting.

There will be a public meeting Wednesday evening, Dec. 11, 7:15 p.m., at the Methodist church to discuss the prevention of tuberculosis (consumption) and to promote a healthy sentiment towards preventing the spread of this disease.

Addresses on this vital subject will be delivered by physicians and laymen, and delegates will be elected to represent our county at the Anti-tuberculosis Association, which meets in Louisville early next year. It is especially desired that we have a large attendance. Ladies are urged to be present and help us in this work. T. ATCHISON FRASER, Health Officer.

The finest Coffee Substitute ever made, has recently been produced by Dr. Shoop of Racine, Wis. You don't have to boil it twenty or thirty minutes. "Made in a minute" says the doctor. "Health Coffee" is really the closest Coffee Imitation ever yet produced. Not a grain of real coffee in it either. Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted cereals or grains, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert--were he to unknowingly drink it for coffee. Sold by Morris & Yates.

Born on June 1, 1833, Justice Harlan is now more than seventy-four years old, but is as active as a man half that age.

To any business man, farmer, manufacturer or family, the market reports are alone worth the price of the entire club. Each paper gives you complete news, not only of the entire United States, but of the world as well. All of the magazines and papers have many special departments that will appeal to and please every person reading them. Semi-monthly and monthly magazines are so well known that when you read the name that alone tells what they are.

The Crittenden RECORD-PRESS is proud to be able to offer to its patrons clubs of this kind, composed of such representative papers and magazines, and we can say to each and every one that our offer is worth many times the price of the clubs and that no one will make a mistake in taking advantage of them.

On page three of this issue you will find an interesting article in regard to all of the papers in our club. This gives a full description of each paper. The saving habit is the key to wealth, not how much you make but how much you save.

Remember this offer is only for a short time. Don't let your opportunity pass. Order now. Tomorrow or next week may be too late.

The Crittenden Record-Press.

This paper, at a large expense and a great deal of work, has arranged three of the most remarkable club offers ever presented by any publisher. Each of these clubs include the COTTENDEN RECORD-PRESS.

The price that each club costs you is only a few cents more each month than you are now paying for our paper. Realizing that we could largely increase our circulation, we entered into a contract to use the papers and magazines that compose the three clubs that we offer. The CRITTENDEN RECORD-PRESS does not make a cent out of this offer, in fact, we lose money, but by increasing our circulation we can secure more advertising and also get a better rate for same.

SPARE MOMENTS.

Every year or so some one magazine comes to the front and stands out as a leader. This year it is Spare Moments. The magazine has had a meteoric career, and made a record in the publishing field. In less than three years it has obtained a subscription circulation of 300,000 copies a month, covering the United States from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and from the Canadian border to the Gulf of Mexico. Started in November, 1901, as a 12-page paper, with a subscription price of ten cents a year, it has increased by gradual stages to a 24-page magazine, with cover in colors, and a subscription price of 50 cents a year. There is absolutely no other magazine like Spare Moments published at the price. It is printed with good ink, clear type, on a good quality of paper. It contains articles by the same writers who contribute to the "Saturday Evening Post," "Collier's," "Munsey" and other magazines which sell for 10 or 15 cents a copy. Spare Moments pays as much for one article in one issue as some papers pay for all the matter they use in a whole year. It is a high class magazine in every respect. During 1907-08 this magazine will contain three great serial stories, a dozen or more short stories by the best writers of the day, articles of current interest, besides department devoted to Cooking, Dressmaking, Fancy Work, Physical Culture, the Children, etc.

THE MOTHER'S MAGAZINE.

The Mother's Magazine is the only magazine exclusively for mothers. It fills a long-felt want and positively meets the needs of the most important class of people in the world. It is cheerful, entertaining, helpful and intensely human. It treats of everything of interest to mothers and nothing else. It carries the news of the day, and special articles and interviews, from the most noted men and women of the country, all bearing on the mother's problems. Its stories and articles are written expressly for mothers, and deal with real life. Everything in the Mother's Magazine is practical and common sense. Its good humor and cheerfulness has won immense popularity. Over 100,000 new subscriptions were received within six months. Besides fascinating stories, special interviews and features, it contains over 20 regular departments to help the mother in every possible way with her children and her home. All readers have the privilege of personal advice and help from the editors, a veritable correspondence school for mothers. The magazine contains from 48 to 64 pages, beautifully printed and profusely illustrated in colors. For 1908 the Mother's Magazine promises more than ever before, especially along the lines of Physical Culture, Beauty Articles, Child Study, Kindergarten

Methods in the Home, Health, Finances, the Servant Problem, Food Products and Preparation, and a great variety of matter for the mother's entertainment and pleasure. Remember there is no substitute for the Mother's Magazine; there is nothing like it published in the country.

DRESSMAKING AT HOME.

This magazine is the size of the Ladies' Home Journal and contains 30 to forty pages dealing entirely with fashions. It not only has a handsome cover in colors, but every issue contains a double page fashion plate in colors. It tells women how to dress; what to wear; how to make their garments and how to have them made; furnishes the latest and most elegant designs; informs what materials are being and will be worn; indicates what would be becoming; contains millinery hints; health and beauty hints; home cooking receipts; articles on home floriculture; contain more fashion material and practical up-to-date designs than any other fashion magazine, it makes a moderate priced pattern for every design; it gives suggestions for making over clothes; and offers individual advice to subscribers; and, in fact, hundreds of ideas and helps for the women of the home.

HUMAN LIFE.

Human Life is a handsome 40-page magazine edited by Alfred Henry Lewis, the highest priced magazine in the world. Each month it contains from 40 to 60 pages brim full of matter, which will be interesting and of value to each and every one. The pictures and illustrations which you will see each month in this publication alone are worth many times the price that we ask for one of our clubs. Among the many authors that you will find each month in this publication are Charles Edward Russell, Walter Shandy, Day Allen Willey, Crawford White and many other of the best known writers in the world. This is not only one of the handsomest and most complete publications of its kind in the world, but it is equal to any publication, no matter what its price may be.

departments. Each issue contains from 50 to 80 pages. Every issue has many handsome illustrations, and each of its departments are in charge of experts. Every issue is printed in magazine form on heavy book paper. Any one that has chickens, pigeons, pet stock, turkeys, geese, ducks, etc. will not only save but will make money by having this well known magazine before them. If anyone takes this publication and does not say it is one of the best of its kind and is as handsome, readable and valuable a poultry paper as is published, we will send same to them three montes as an absolute present.

A description of the other publications included in these club offers will be given next week.

BIBLE CLASS

REV. J. F. PRICE, EDITOR

1ST SAMUEL, I-III

Topics for Study

1. The book of Samuel.
2. Samuel's parents.
3. Hannah's vow and prayer.
4. Hannah's song.
5. Eli's family.
6. The Priests' portion.
7. A mother's love.
8. Contrast between Samuel and Eli's sons.
9. Curse of Eli for failing to raise his children right.
10. Samuel's call.
11. Revelation to Samuel of the curse on Eli.

This Bible class was started last spring, through the efforts of Rev. Jas. F. Price, but never took any form of organization until last Sunday, when the members present organized on the plan suggested by the Adult Department of the State Sunday School Association, and thus became members of the International Adult Bible Classes.

The officers are: L. E. Crider, President; W. E. Minner, Vice-president; Miss May Travis, Secretary; Treasurer, Rev. Jas. F. Price, Teacher and R. L. Moore, Assistant Teacher.

For the present there were two standing committees appointed.

Committee on Membership: Mrs. L. E. Crider, Mrs. Carrie Thomas, Mrs. J. F. Price, Mr. W. E. Minner, and Mrs. Holtzelaw.

Social Committee: Mrs. T. C. Goss, Mrs. Mollie Travis, Mrs. J. L. Stewart, and Mr. E. H. Holtzelaw.

The class emblem is small red celluloid button-spin with white center, which was adopted by the International Adult Bible Class Committee, and every member is entitled to wear one, and it is worn as a constant reminder of the bond of fellowship existing between the Adults Bible Classes of the Continent.

The move is non-denominational, and it is the hope of the Sunday school workers to make Kentucky one of the leading states of the union in Adult Classes, and to bring the state to the for Christ and His kingdom.

Everybody invited to attend the meetings of the class, and all over sixteen years of age are cordially solicited to join and help the good work along.

The International Sunday School Association meets in Louisville next June, so let us help to make Kentucky a Banner State.

Harrah for the Kentucky Girl!

A Kentucky girl inserted the following advertisement in a Chicago newspaper:

"I want to be somebody's stenographer or bookkeeper; not his sweetheart. I have been in Chicago three day's answering want ads, and I've had more chances to be somebody's darling than I knew existed. If there is a in Chicago who needs help and would rather have a girl attending to business than making goo-goo eyes, I should like to hear from him. I already have a sweetheart of my own." —Ex.

The session of the Presbyterian Church U. S. A. will petition for a transfer from the Paducah Presbytery to the Princeton Presbytery U. S. Rev. Jas. F. Price, the pastor of the Presbyterian church, U. S. A., is now assisting in a meeting at Westmoreland, Tolu, will be at home soon and fill his pulpit as usual. The opening subject of the message is the financial condition of the country,
for which his present law made
the blind upon unscrupulous stock holders and speculators.

He says: "A large body of men, however,
are certain to be some who are honest, and if this conditions are such that these men prosper or commit their misdeeds with impunity, their example is a very evil thing for the community. Where these men are businesses of great magnitude and of temperament both unscrupulous and reckless, and where the conditions are such as they act without supervision or control, and at first without effective check from public opinion, they include any innocent people in making extremes of blackmailing in kind, of which there are many, and, naturally,
they do occur those who sufficiently apt to forget that the longer it was delayed the more painful it would be in the effort to punish the guilty. It is both wise and proper to endeavor so far as possible to minimize the distress of those who have been led by the guilty. Yet it is not possible to relieve distress of such distress from attempting to put an end to the misdeeds
that are the ultimate causes of the suffering, and as a means to this and where possible to punish those responsible for them. There may be honest differences of opinion as to many governmental policies, but surely there can be no such differences as to the need of unfaltering perseverance in the war against successful dishonesty."

He quotes at length from his message of last year in which he advocated federal control of corporations doing interstate business, and notes
the inaction of Congress which found no time for overcapitalization and stock speculation which he believes have brought about the present financial conditions. He says:

"Our steady aim should be to legislation cautiously and carefully undertaken, but resolutely persevered in, to assure the sovereignty of the national government by affirmative action."

This is only in form an innovation
in substance it is merely a restoration
from the earliest time such regulation of industrial activities has been recognized in the action of the law-making bodies, and at that I propose to meet the changed conditions
so far as the national government can now do, by amending the laws before obtaining a final decision of the courts upon proceedings instituted, and even a favorable decree may mean an empty victory. Moreover, to attempt to control these corporations by lawsuits
is impossible to impose upon both the department of justice and the courts an impossible burden. It is not feasible to carry on more than a limited number of such suits. Since a lawsuit can be really effective only if it is conducted by an experienced executive body, and not merely by means of lawsuits. The design should be to prevent the abuses incident to the creation of unhealthy and improper combinations,
instead of waiting until they are in existence
and then attempting to destroy them by civil or criminal proceedings."

Investing Public Funds Are Properly Safeguarded.

The congress has the power to charter corporations to engage in interstate and foreign commerce, and a general law can be enacted under the provisions of which existing corporations can take out federal charters and new federal corporations could be created. An essential provision of such a law should be a method of predetermining by some federal board or committee whether the applicant for a federal charter will be allowed or denied, and within the restriction of the federal law, stockholders should also be made to complete liability in full measure to the public, and complete protection to the investing public and the share holders in the matter of issuing corporate securities. If an incorporation law is not deemed advisable, a law act for big interstate corporations might be enacted to a combination of the two might be enacted, but it is not necessary that for some of them it is worse. The nation is becoming more and more of prime importance, and unless the courts will themselves deal with it in effective manner, it is clearly ultimate to demand some form of legislative action. It would be most important for our social welfare
if we should permit many honest and law-abiding citizens to feel that they had just cause to regard our courts with hostility. I earnestly commend to the attention of the congress
this measure, so that we may be dealt with without the slows of investigation and protection those rights which from time to time are gravely threatened by unscrupulous individuals. Moreover, disloyalty is often expressed with the use of the process of injunction by the courts, not only in labor disputes, but in state laws re-concerned. I refrain from discussing this question as I am informed that it will soon receive the consideration of the supreme court."

"The constitutionality of the employers'
